

Lesson 6

Aesop's fables

Adjective phrases

An adjective phrase is a group of words that describe a noun or pronoun in a sentence. The adjective in an adjective phrase can appear at the start, end, or in the middle of the phrase. The adjective phrase can be placed before, or after, the noun or pronoun in the sentence.

Adjective Phrase

Examples

- The movie was not too terrible.
- A person smarter than me needs to figure this out.
- The final exams were unbelievably difficult.
- This pie is very delicious and extremely expensive.
- Everyone was extremely delighted when the winner was announced.
- The new outfit was very pricey but really beautiful.
- Mom said the cost of a car is way too high.
- Faster than a speeding bullet, Superman saved the day.
- Students upset about the rising cost of tuition staged a rally.
- That complex has quite small but cheap apartments.
- Her eyes were incredibly mesmerizing to the young man.
- The highly emotive actor gave a wonderful performance.
- Your apple pie smells very tempting.
- Eating out is usually not very healthy.
- The extremely tired kitten fell asleep by her food dish.
- She is rather fond of skiing.
- By the end of the date, I was fairly bored with him.
- The overly enthusiastic fans painted their bodies with the team's colors.
- A dog covered in mud makes a mess in a car.
- The valedictorian was far too serious about her GPA.

- A tapestry beautifully stitched by hand is worth the cost.
- Cowboys riding into the sunset were in the final scenes of many movies.
- The foundation is raising money for children deformed with birth defects.
- That movie is getting scarier and scarier.
- I really wanted to paint it eggplant purple.
- The man covered in sweat took a well-deserved break.
- Grass-fed organic beef is the best choice.
- She was proud of her son winning the science fair.
- The animal cowering in the corner was rescued and given a good home.
- My brother is older than me.
- This stone is the heaviest of all.
- I am quite enamored with him.
- The music from next door was annoyingly loud.
- Jorge was merely anxious to get on his way.
- I love the taste of a sweet juicy peach.
- The boys were annoyed about the long lines.
- I feel sorry for people living on the streets.