

The Laburnum

1. What type of tree is mentioned in the poem?

A laburnum tree is mentioned in the poem.

2. How does the poet describe the tree?

The poet describes the tree as a lone tree that is of unremarkable height and ordinary leaves.

3. Question copy from text book

a. By 'the golden light' the poet refers to the rays of the sun.

b. We experience summer season in May.

c. (1) flowers blooming

4. Question copy from text book

a. The laburnum flower is described as 'flowers of sunshine' because they bloom in summer.

b. The breeze is called the 'wayward breeze' because the breeze is unpredictable and difficult to control.

c. The laburnum flowers are dropped as gold on passers-by.