

SECTORS OF THE INDIAN ECONOMY

- 1. Classify the economic sectors on the basis of nature of activity.
- 2. Explain with an example how the three sectors are intermingled.
- 3. What is GDP? How is it calculated? Who takes up the mammoth task of calculating GDP
- 4. Describe the historical changes that have taken place in the sectors after independence.
- 5. Why is the tertiary sector becoming so important in India?
- 6. Not all of the service sector is growing equally. Justify the statement.
- 7. Explain the problems of under employment in the service sector in urban areas with an example.
- 8. What is disguised unemployment? Why is it apparently found in the rural areas?
- 9. What is MGNREGA Act?
- 10. Differentiate between organised and unorganised sector.
- 11. How to protect workers in the unorganised sector?
- 12. What constitutes the unorganised sector in the urban areas? Why do workers need protection?
- 13. Explain the conditions of SC and ST workers in the unorganised sectors in the urban areas.
- 14. What constitutes unorganised sector in the rural areas?
- 15. Classify the sectors of economy on the basis of ownership.

( or )

- 16. How are the sectors classified based upon the entrepreneurship or ownership?
- 17. Why is the government taking care of certain sectors? Why is this not given to the private sector?
- 18. Differentiate between the public sector and the private sector.
- 19. How does the public sector contribute to the economic development of a country?

- 20. What are the activities which the government has to support?
- 21. Identify the importance of the public sector.