

Across

- 2. The ability to obtain necessary medications and pharmacy services.
- 5. A meeting to discuss a patient's medication needs.
- 8. The process of creating a specific mixture of ingredients for medications.
- 12. An individual receiving medical care or treatment.
- 13. The subjects comprising a course of study in pharmacy education.
- 14. Systematic investigation to establish facts or principles in pharmacy.
- 16. The standard of excellence in pharmaceutical products and services.
- 18. The introduction of new ideas or methods in pharmacy.
- 19. Rules established to govern the practice of pharmacy.
- 20. The process of combining different substances to create a medication.

Down

- 1. An organization formed for a specific purpose, often related to a profession.
- 3. Relating to the observation and treatment of patients.
- 4. The sector involved in the production and distribution of pharmaceuticals.
- 6. Treatment intended to relieve or heal a disorder.
- 7. The process of obtaining a license to practice pharmacy.
- 9. The process of receiving systematic instruction, especially in a formal setting.
- 10. A licensed professional who practices pharmacy.
- 11. Moral principles that govern the conduct of pharmacy professionals.
- 15. Working together with other healthcare professionals.
- 17. The process of preparing and giving out medications to patients.