

Across

6. A terpene with a woody aroma, found in jasmine.
8. A class of terpenes composed of two isoprene units.
9. A class of terpenes composed of three isoprene units.
10. A unique terpene that can interact with cannabinoid receptors.
12. A terpene with a eucalyptus scent, used in aromatherapy.
17. A terpene with a camphor-like scent, used in fragrances.
19. A terpene with a citrus scent, commonly found in lemon peels.

Down

1. A spicy terpene found in black pepper and cloves.
2. A terpene that has a fruity aroma, found in apples.
3. A terpene with a floral aroma, often found in nutmeg.
4. A terpene known for its earthy aroma, often found in hops.
5. A terpene with a pleasant floral scent, used in perfumes.
7. A class of terpenes composed of six isoprene units.
11. A terpene that smells like pine and is found in pine trees.

Across

- 20. A terpene with a floral scent, commonly found in lavender.
- 22. A terpene with a citrusy scent, found in coriander.
- 24. A term referring to a type of structure in some terpenes.
- 25. A building block of many terpenes, a simple hydrocarbon.

Down

- 13. A complex terpene found in various essential oils.
- 14. A terpene with a sweet, citrusy scent, found in mint.
- 15. A terpene derived from chlorophyll, used in fragrances.
- 16. A terpene that is a precursor to many essential oils.
- 18. A terpene with a minty aroma, used in traditional medicine.
- 21. A terpene with a rose-like scent, found in geraniums.
- 23. A terpene known for its sweet, pungent aroma.