

Across

3. A WBC that engulfs and destroys pathogens.
4. A type of WBC without granules in its cytoplasm.
5. A type of white blood cell that helps fight infections.
7. A protein produced by the immune system to fight infections.
8. A substance that triggers an immune response.
9. A WBC that is the first responder to infections.

Down

1. A type of WBC with granules in its cytoplasm.
2. A WBC that can differentiate into macrophages.
5. A type of WBC that plays a key role in the immune system.
6. A WBC that helps combat parasitic infections.