

Across

- 5. Appliance that keeps blood components at safe temperatures
- 7. Act of drawing blood from a volunteer
- 9. Record of available blood types and quantities
- 10. Degree to which donor and recipient blood types match

Down

- 1. Liquid portion of blood stored for medical use
- 2. Specific part of blood, such as platelets or plasma, stored separately
- 3. Testing donated blood for diseases before storage
- 4. Protein that carries oxygen in red blood cells
- 6. Technique that separates specific blood components for collection
- 8. Clear fluid left after clotting, used in testing